REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 2-8 are allowable because the prior art fails to disclose or make obvious, either singly or in combination, a photoconductive switch module comprising, in addition to the other recited features of the claim, "the second substrate has a circuit wiring connected to the photoconductive switch elements on the side facing the third substrate, the third substrate has a concave portion extending along the circuit wiring, and the circuit wiring and the concave portion are arranged to face each other".

Claims 11-12 are allowable because the prior art fails to disclose or make obvious, either singly or in combination, a photoconductive switch module comprising, in addition to the other recited features of the claim, "the second substrate has a circuit wiring connected to the photoconductive switch elements on the side facing the third substrate, and the photoconductive switch module further comprises electromagnetic shield means for the circuit wiring, the electromagnetic shield means being disposed on the third substrate on the side facing the second substrate and arranged to face the circuit wiring".

Claims 13-18 are allowable because the prior art fails to disclose or make obvious, either singly or in combination, a photoconductive switch module comprising, in addition to the other recited features of the claim, "the third substrate further has a convex portion protruding from the bottom surface of the concave portion, and the convex portion has a height equal to or smaller than a depth of the concave portion".

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
